Work History:

Work Experience

Beans Coffee Shop - 2194 S High St, Denver, Colorado 80210, US (Primary)

September 2018 - Present

I am currently employed as a barista at Beans Coffee Shop, a café located on the University of Denver campus which seeks to provide “coffee by students, for students”. The other baristas and I work together to prepare food and drinks for our customers while simultaneously fostering an atmosphere that is cozy and comfortable for all. I’m a member of our ‘culture club’ which works to promote bonding between our baristas as well as to come up with new ways to introduce art and beauty into our space.

International Summer Camp Montana - Route de La Moubra 43, Crans-Montana, Valais 3963, CH

June 2018 - August 2018

I spent the summer of 2018 working as a pioneer councilor for children ages 9-12 from diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds at International Summer Camp Montana. I worked with a staff of dedicated and passionate people from all around the world to care for some pretty amazing kids and to ensure their safety and enjoyment during their time at camp.

Clothes Pony and Dandelion Toys- 111 N College Ave, Fort Collins, CO 80524

May 2015 – June 2017

I spent two years working “back of the house” at Clothes Pony and Dandelion Toys in Old Town - Fort Collins, Colorado. I worked evenings and was regularly responsible for completing work assignments proactively and efficiently, often with little supervision. During my time at Clothes Pony I gained experience paying attention to detail while still working quickly especially when merchandizing, sorting our back-stock, and wrapping gifts for customers.

Internship Experience

Denver Quarterly Literary Journal

I was chosen from a group of Undergrad applications to work as a prose intern at the Denver Quarterly Literary Journal for the 2019-2020 production year. In this position, I read and evaluate submitted short stories with the intention of indicating if they are a fit for the magazine.

Volunteer Experience

Poudre Valley Hospital: Gift Shop and 'Volunteer'

Summer 2013 - June 2017

At the Gift Shop, I performed many of the usual duties associated with retail work. This included, but was not limited to, restocking inventory and closing the store at the end of the day. As a 'Volunteer' I was assigned different tasks such as: delivering cookies to patients, sorting and delivering cleaned 'linens', restocking the coffee stations, and distributing magazines. My time at the hospital taught me that even the most mundane and repetitive tasks are essential to maintaining a successful business.

Education:

Universidad de Buenos Aires/Universidad del Salvador

I had the opportunity to take classes in language and literature at multiple universities in Buenos Aires, Argentina during the months of August – November 2019. During this time, I expanded my language skills and cultural awareness while simultaneously adapting to new learning environments.

University of Denver – 2199 S University Blvd, Denver, CO 80208

GPA:

Pursuing Ba's in English Literature and Spanish with a minor in Writing Practices and an honors distinction

I am currently a third year, Honors Student at the University of Denver. I acted as vice president of the Catholic Student's fellowship (2018) am current Co-president of the Honor's Book Club and Artistic Director of "Foothills", an undergrad literary and visual arts magazine. In Spring 2019 I had the honor of receiving the Olna Fant Cook Award from the English department at DU and the Excellence in Spanish Studies departmental award in 2020. In Spring 2020, I was invited to join the Phi Beta Kappa honors society.

Poudre High School – 201 N Impala Dr., Fort Collins, CO 80521

GPA: 4.0

I am a graduate of the International Baccalaureate (IB) Program at Poudre High School. I was a member of National Honors Society and the International Thespian Society. I held several leadership positions in theatre productions and various clubs during my time at PHS.
